3. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

3.1 Introduction

The welfare of the children in our care is paramount. Even when all precautions are properly observed, emergencies can still arise. Therefore, members of staff will undertake periodic head counts, especially at the transition points between sessions.

3.2 Procedure

If for any reason a member of staff cannot account for a child's whereabouts during a session, the teacher/adult in charge will apply the following procedure:

1. Ensure that all other children continue to be supervised appropriately while a search for the child concerned is carried out. If the person is on their own, use the classroom phone to summon a member of staff or office to come immediately and wait with the class.
2. Make a thorough check of all the rooms first before searching other areas. The staff member will be careful not to create an atmosphere of panic.
3. The Head of the school must be informed that the child is missing. If they are absent, then the Assistant Head must be informed.
4. Check with the office that the child has not been signed out by the parent.
5. Check premises for any breaches of security.
6. Organise the remaining available responsible adults to conduct a search of the surrounding area allocating each individual to a specific area. Request that all those searching report back within a short time, dependent on the size of the area being searched.

7. If after 10 minutes of thorough searching the child is still missing, the Head will inform the police and then the child's parent/carer to advise them of the concern and reassure them that everything is being done to locate their child.
8. Make a note of the circumstances in which the child has gone missing and where they were last seen and prepare a detailed physical description of the child, to include their hair and eye colour, approximate height and build and clothing they were wearing, as this will be required by the police.
9. While waiting for the police and the parent/carer to arrive, searches for the child will continue. During this period, other members of staff will maintain as normal a routine as is possible for the rest of the children.
10. Follow police guidance if further action is recommended and maintain close contact with the police and do everything possible to comfort and reassure the parents.
11. Report the incident to the designated safeguarding officer.
12. Finally, ensure that all adults involved including the parents, searchers and police are informed if at any stage the child is located.
